MAY 2024

THIS MONTH AT THE STORE

May is here, and we are fully into Spring. This month, we celebrate Mothers and Primavera with a lovely Mother's Day table display.

In the spotlight, you will find some of our favorites: Nosotros Means Us, Salsa Lullaby, La Princesa and the Pea, and Mamá Goose.

New board books and hardcover books are coming next month! We'll also add more "mini lingo" bilingual memory/flashcards, and what's the story cards, which are a fun way to come up with new stories together! Can't wait for you to see them!

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Featured book of the month! One of our favorite books is Nosotros Mean Us.

This is a lovely book, written as a poem from a mother to her child. It highlights the unconditional love between them, their unbreakable bond, and the fact that even though we change as we grow, love will bridge any gaps.

*Find it at The Little Bookstore!

You can find this book alone, or as part of a bundle with Salsa Lullaby and Paletero Man.*

MAKE IT BILINGUAL!

A letter to mom! ... ¡Una carta a mamá!

Let's make a personalized Mother's Day card.

We can use any scraps of recycled paper and materials, and encourage the child to use their creativity. (Keep going! How about one card for grandma, godmother, aunt?)

Book: Nosotros Meas Us.

Activity: Mother's Day Card. (Drawing/collage and word/s or short message)

Make it bilingual: Inspired by the book, help the child write the words or message in both English and Spanish.
